

INTERMEDIATE ENGINEER/HYDROGEOLOGIST

City: Toronto
Region: Ontario

Job Type: Permanent – Full Time
Date Posted: March 1, 2018

DESCRIPTION

We are currently seeking an Intermediate Environmental Engineer or Hydrogeologist to take on a project management role within the team. The preferred candidate is expected to:

- Be a team player;
- Have a strong working knowledge and applied field experience in aquifer characterisation activities including drilling, well construction, instrumentation and hydraulic testing;
- Be able to apply software to interpret and manage data;
- Be knowledgeable of the regulatory framework,
- Have experience with Environmental Site Assessments and management of contaminated Sites;
- Have strong communication skills with emphasis on high quality technical writing of investigation reports, water management plans, feasibility studies, assessments and regulatory reports; and
- Be able to travel.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Build strong relations with existing and potential clients.
- Prepare proposals for new work mandates and assist in business development opportunities.
- Completing, directing, background documentation reviews, field investigations, data analysis, and preparing reports to document findings.
- Tracking budgets and schedules as part of the successful delivery of projects.
- Managing staff resources for projects and assist in mentoring junior staff.

QUALIFICATIONS

- A bachelor's degree in environmental engineering, or earth science.
- Post Graduate studies are an advantage.
- Licensed to practice as a P.Eng. or P.Geo. in Ontario.
- 5 – 10 years consulting experience in groundwater resources.
- Have a vehicle and valid driver's license.
- Eligible for Provincial and Federal Security Clearance.

Watermark Environmental is a strong proponent of employment equity. However, only qualified candidates will be contacted.